Out of the 38 applications received:

22 were submitted by Constituted Groups
16 were submitted by Parish Councils

Monies requested by June applicants = £361,137
Monies dispersed to successful applicants = £121,812

All successful applicants have now been informed and are looking to receive their funding by the end of July.

We will be keeping you updated with how their projects are progressing throughout the year.

Talking of success stories, Clive Emmett from CVSU Uttlesford, successful applicant from December 2017 (interest declared*) and also a panel member for this fund, will be sharing his success story of how the Essex County Council grant has helped transform the lives of local people in his community at our AGM on the 20th September.

* Members of the panel who declare an interest do not take part in the decision making process.

Our next panel meeting is scheduled for Thursday 6th December 2018

- So we welcome pre application checklists by the 14th September 2018
- Applications forms to be received by the 25th October 2018

Please ensure that when you submit your application, that you include your Essex County Councillor supporting email.
